It is generally best to take as many pictures before the wedding as possible. This way, there is more time to enjoy the reception and your guests after the wedding. One hour and a half before the wedding is usually sufficient. This will give time to complete many portraits before the arrival of guests. With careful planning by the contact person, these portraits can be arranged so that the bride and groom do not see each other before the ceremony.

Unforeseen circumstances (death in family, extreme sickness, disaster, camera breakage, etc...)

As I am the sole photographer, and small business owner, you will be given special pricing. Insurance for such unforeseen circumstances would make it necessary for me to raise prices considerably. In the rare event that circumstances make it impossible for me to take the pictures of your wedding, you will be refunded your deposit. In the event that you are not satisfied with your pictures, your deposit will be refunded, and you will lose all accesses to your photos. Let it be noted that if the possibility of such a situation ever occurred, I would notify you as soon as possible so that you could find another photographer in time for your wedding.
